WINNERS
Selecting Winner(s)	Skill-based competition outside of the game – Please see paragraph 5.b. of the Terms and Conditions. In accordance with paragraph 5.b of the Terms and Conditions, entries will be judged to determine the Initial Shortlist and the Further Shortlist. The final winners will then be selected by public vote as described below. Jagex shall identify up to 5 entries from each category for an initial shortlist based on the best decoration skills, presentation, and effort (Initial Shortlist). A further shortlist of 3 entries from each category will be selected by an OSRS content creator (Judge) from the Initial Shortlist (Further Shortlist). The Judge shall determine the Further Shortlist based on the best decoration skills, presentation, and effort. The photos of the 3 eggs from each category from the Further Shortlist will be showcased on the Twitch 'OSRS Easter' livestream on 2 April 2026 and the Twitch poll will be open for a duration of 3 minutes to allow viewers to vote for their choice of winner. The entry with the most votes via the Twitch poll shall be deemed the winner. More details on Twitch poll voting can be found here. In the event that Twitch poll voting is not possible, the Judge shall select the winners acting reasonably, following the conclusion of the Twitch 'OSRS Easter' livestream on 2 April 2026, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.
Announcement Date/Time	2 April 2026 during the Easter livestream between (approximately) 16:00 and 18:00 BST.
Contact Period following Announcement Date	Reasonable efforts will be made to contact the winners over a period of two weeks from the Announcement Date.
